Under a new statement of policy the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors is on record favoring a plan of rehabilitating persons who have been confined in county institutions because of destitution or long illness, according to chairman of the board, Raymond V. Darby.

It is hoped that after six months of training many indigents at Rancho Los Amigos and other county institutions can be placed in private employment.

Street cars operating outside of any city limits will be required to set aside a section in which smoking will be allowed. The City of Los Angeles several years ago prohibited smoking on public conveyances.

Tony Grich Tommy Harris To Mix Friday

San Pedro's latest boxing idol, Tony Grich, the Slav who carries a potent left so low his rivals look over it, will engage Tommy Harris of Pomona in the final half of the double main event which headlines the amateur boxing show at the Wilmington Bowl tomorrow night. First preliminary on a card which looms as one of the finest of the season, will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Harris is riding along as one of the greatest comers in Southern California boxing, having won 10 out of 20 matches, and figures, as a result, to give the San Pedro favorite one of the roughest battles of the season.

In the first half of the double feature Howard Shinn of Long Beach, Chick Brown's latest light heavyweight find, takes on Glenn Smith of Inglewood in a rematch of their torrid draw which stole last week's show.

Four Quintets Cavort At Harbor Hills

Four Harbor Hills basketball teams are currently showing their respective prowess in various Harbor area leagues, Lynd Esch, recreation director at the project, reported today.

Gensler-Lees
The Terrace Men's quintet, sponsored by Gensler-Lees, is performing in the San Pedro Y.M.C.A. league under the scoring leadership of Deadeye Center Dude Olsen, who, when this was written had an average of better than 16 points per game.

With the conclusion of Marine League high school competition Esch is counting on some of Coach Wayne Sloss' top talent to bolster the Harbor Hills five. Paul Pettit, left-handed Narbonne ace, will join the Gensler-Lees, Esch said.

Other standouts on the men's quintet include Forward Francis Munsterman, guards Gene Morris and John Olson and Forward Paul Larson.

Seniors

The Harbor Hills Seniors, one age bracket younger than the men's aggregation, are performing every Friday night in the Banning Homes league, where they have won 2 and lost 1. Next Friday they take the hardwoods against Channel Heights.

The Seniors are sparked by Kyle Bowers and Andy Spaan.

Juniors

The Harbor Hills Juniors are likewise playing Friday nights in the Banning Homes league. Esch said his Juniors field almost the same lineup as did the Narbonne "D" team. Stars include Jim Bowers, center; Ed White and Dan Montgomery, forwards, and Michael Moore and Larry Jimenez, guards.

Midgets

The midget team representing the project is entered in the Anderson Memorial afternooon league. Don Perkins, Martin Durham, Lloyd Orr, Frank Yancey and Dennis Hester are standouts.

Trotters Vs. Celtics

Showboats of basketball, the clever and comical Harlem Globetrotters, will appear twice in the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium next week, facing the reorganized and once-famous New York Celtics in the feature game of a double header Sunday night, Feb. 1 and taking on the Kansas City Royals in the top skirmish on Wednesday night, Feb. 4.

Jesse Owens's Kansas City quintet will oppose the All-Hawaii Stars of Honolulu in the Sunday night opener, while the Celtics tackle the Hawaiians in the first game on Wednesday, both preliminaries starting at 8 p.m.

Tickets are on sale at the auditorium box office already, and since the Trotters have played to sell out crowds every year for more than a decade, another early "S. R. O." sign is expected.
